Project summary statement:

A contract was issued in the fall of 2021 to Matrix Consulting Group to perform a comprehensive review of all aspects of the Everett Police Department. This work will result in a set of recommendations.

Matrix Consulting will be presenting information on the status of the police department's ongoing assessment study. The briefing will include a review of the work completed to date and will include the assessment focus areas, the scoping and engagement phase and the draft recommendations and options phase.
